

Factors affecting HIV transmission among displaced populations

12 June 2017

Humanitarian emergencies and conflict disrupt normal social and economic structures and activities and often involve mass displacement. Interaction between various factors during mass displacement can both increase and decrease the risk of HIV transmission.

Factors affecting HIV transmission among displaced populations

AVERT.org Source: Paul B. Spiegel (2004) 'HIV/AIDS among Conflict-affected and Displaced Populations: Dispelling Myths and Taking Action', Disasters

Find out more about Humanitarian Emergencies and Armed Conflict and HIV.