

Infographic

Keep girls in education to reduce risk of HIV

12 July 2017

Giving girls better access to education increases their chances of a more stable economic and socially autonomous future, making them less vulnerable to being exposed to HIV.

Find out more about gender inequality