Infographic

What happens when you go for an HIV test

12 July 2017

Testing for HIV is simple and involves taking just a small sample of blood or a swab of oral fluid.

An HIV test is done by taking blood from the finger or arm, or by an oral swab.

Find out more about what's involved in HIV tests