

HIV and AIDS in Eastern Europe and Central Asia

20 August 2019

In 2018, there were 1.7 million people living with HIV in Eastern Europe and Central Asia. The rate of new infections is increasing rapidly.

Eastern Europe & Central Asia (2018)

1.7m people living with HIV

0.9% adult HIV prevalence (ages 15-49)

150,000 new HIV infections

38,000 AIDS-related deaths

38% all ages on antiretroviral treatment*

n/a children on antiretroviral treatment*

*All adults/children living with HIV

Source: UNAIDS Data 2019

Find out more about HIV in Eastern Europe and Central Asia.