

Global: distribution of new HIV infections among key populations

02 March 2020

In 2018, key populations and their partners accounted for over half of new global HIV infections.

Find out more about the global HIV epidemic and key populations.