

Evaluating Young Voices

Young Voices is a pilot project, and we are eager to receive feedback on how it is being used, who it is reaching, and what's working.

As part of this free set of resources, we only ask that users fill in a short survey to help us understand how the materials are being used, and to help us keep Young Voices relevant and effective. As Young Voices is a living resource, we will be incorporating feedback and improving this guide going forward.

Click here to access the survey and submit your data if you are working with an organisation. If you are an individual using Young Voices you can submit your feedback here.

Some of the indicators that we ask users to track include how they used the materials, if they are clear and accurate, and if you have any suggestions to improve Young Voices. We also welcome any examples of comic strip cartoons created - either through the online cartoon creator or using paper and pens offline. You can upload these while completing your survey, or email to info@avert.org.

For information, the survey data we are collecting is set out below.
