

HIV, injecting drugs & harm reduction fact sheet

Sharing needles and syringes to inject drugs puts you at risk of infections such as HIV and hepatitis.

If you inject drugs, make sure you know how to do it safely and find out about the services and treatment available to help reduce your risk of HIV and other infections.

Download our HIV, injecting drugs & harm reduction fact sheet to find out more.

Last full review:

01 March 2019

Next full review:

28 February 2021