Coronavirus (COVID-19)

The new and ongoing coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, caused by a new strain of coronavirus, has resulted in extraordinary measures around the world to contain, slow the pace, or reduce the impact of the virus.

But there is a lot of misinformation circulating about what the new COVID-19 virus is, how it’s transmitted, how to prevent it and how to treat it. Our new section talks you through everything you need to know about COVID-19 and the impact on people living with HIV.

Coronavirus (COVID-19) and HIV

What does the COVID-19 mean for people living with HIV? Information on how coronavirus is passed on and how to protect yourself.

About coronavirus (COVID-19)

Learn about the new coronavirus - how it’s spread, how to prevent it and symptoms.

Take our COVID-19 quiz!

Take our quiz to see if you have got all the right information about COVID-19 and how to look after your health.

Sex and coronavirus (COVID-19)

COVID-19 is not a sexually transmitted infection, however,

Coronavirus (COVID-19) FAQs

Find answers to some of the most common questions about

COVID-19: Myths and facts

Putting the record straight on common COVID-19 myths and it can be passed on through kissing and close contact, including having sex.

COVID-19 and what it means for misinformation on people living with HIV.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Links to resources on COVID-19 for people working on HIV across the globe.</td>
<td>Get all our COVID-19 infographics in one place, making it easier for you to share the correct information with your online community.</td>
<td>Our Boost app has new information and resources on COVID-19 specially designed for community health workers and their clients.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>