What are the main symptoms of COVID-19?

19 November 2020

The symptoms of coronavirus (COVID-19) may be different for different people, but the most common symptoms are fever, dry cough, tiredness, loss of taste or smell.

Find out more about COVID-19.

Landing page summary:
The symptoms of coronavirus (COVID-19) may be different for different people, but the most common symptoms are fever, dry cough, tiredness, loss of taste or smell.