The best ways to prevent coronavirus (COVID-19) are through social distancing and wearing a face mask when you are around others. Follow your local government’s advice for further precautions where necessary.