The best ways to prevent coronavirus (COVID-19) are through social distancing and wearing a face mask when you are around others. Follow your local government’s advice for further precautions where necessary.

Find out more about COVID-19.

Landing page summary:
The best ways to prevent coronavirus (COVID-19) are through social distancing and wearing a face mask when you are around others. Follow your local government’s advice for further precautions where necessary.