How can I prevent COVID-19?

19 November 2020

The best way to prevent coronavirus (COVID-19) is through good respiratory hygiene. This includes regular hand washing and covering your mouth and nose when you sneeze or cough. Follow your local government's advice for further precautions where necessary.

Find out more about COVID-19.

Landing page summary:
The best way to prevent coronavirus (COVID-19) is through good respiratory hygiene. This includes regular hand washing and covering your mouth and nose when you sneeze or cough. Follow your local government's advice for further precautions where necessary.