

First time sex stories

Having sex for the first time, or losing your virginity, is an important life event for many people.

Deciding if you are ready to have sex for the first time is very personal. Whether it's your first time or not, you should only have sex if you feel enthusiastic about it. You can read more in our 'Am I ready for sex?' page.

Many people feel strongly that their first time should be saved for someone special, or until they've reached a certain age. Some people have sex for the first time when they are teenagers, while others choose to wait till they are older. For some people it's important to be married before they have sex.

No matter what you plan, some people's first time works out exactly how they want it to, and other people's may not. Talking to your partner about what you want and issues like safer sex beforehand will help make the experience more enjoyable for you both.

Here are some real first time sex stories - submitted by readers of our site.

If you have your own story to tell, you can share it with us here and we'll do our best to publish it. Just let us know if you'd like to remain anonymous.
