

Martha is in the hair salon getting her hair done.

You have a boyfriend?! That is why I haven't seen you in such a long time. Who is it?

My boyfriend really likes me in this style - and he gave me the money to get it.

His name is Keefe. He is such a lovely person... He's a bit controlling sometimes - but no one's perfect!

What do you mean by controlling?

Don't get me wrong, he's a great guy. It's just he always likes to know where I am.

That sounds like quite a big thing!

Well, actually, he thinks I should ask him before I go anywhere.

And sometimes he asks to check my phone - in a jokey way.

And it got worse... And then one time he ended up hitting me.

Ah sister, be careful! I used to have a boyfriend who also used to check my phone.

He was so sorry, and I loved him, so I stayed. But then it happened again, and again.

Oh Nola, I'm so sorry! Keefe is not like that though.

What do you think Martha should do?
